

The WWDC water well site is proposed to be located left of the water catch basin shown in the upper photo. The view is south toward Lysite Mountain.

The proposed WWDC well site is viewed north toward Black Mountain.

A culvert crossing will need to be installed across the drainage here.

The road which has been bladed in the past will have to be reworked to allow drilling equipment to traverse the slope out of the drainage.

WYW-156319

Photo Exhibit 2 of 3

The existing road on public land in section 2 will not require additional work.

The existing road entering public land on the opposite side of the gate in section 1 will not require additional work.

WYW-156319

Photo Exhibit 3 of 3